

2018

Mouniratou lives in Bobo Dioulasso with her widowed mother and members of the extended family. She is in her third and last year of nursing school. She will take the test for government jobs in December.

2017

Mouniratou is in her second year of a three-year program in nursing. Her grades are good; she's motivated. All is well. (Solidarité)

2016

Mouniratou Zango is in her first year of nursing school. Like Diane Alida, she gets up early to walk two kilometers to school. So we bought her a bicycle too.
