

2018

Marie-Thérèse is finishing a Licence degree at a business school in Koudougou. She lost her father when she was very young. She lives with her mother and aunts, who support themselves selling produce at market.

2017

Marie-Thérèse Yameogo is in her second of a three-year Licence program in marketing. She takes evening courses. She will take an exam this year to have a DET certificate and then try to find work. If she doesn't succeed, she will finish her Licence degree. Last year she had a 12/20 average. (Solidarité)

Discussing career plans in January 2017.

2016

Marie-Thérèse Yameogo is studying marketing at an institute in Koudougou. She is her first of a three-year program leading to a Licence diploma. She wants to work in the private sector. She lives at home.

